

Major achievements and activities of the CEC committee in academic year 2011/2012

1. Finalizing the CEC policy and the approval by senates (CEC Policy attached)
2. Visiting Elderly Home Riffah (Report attached)
3. Enjaz projects (Reports attached)
4. Partnership with Injaz and COCA COLA
5. Collaboration with Red Crescent Bahrain

Visit to the Riffa Elderly Parents Day Care (Organized by CEC & CGS)

As a part of the Community Engagement of Royal University for Women, Lecturer Ms Rama Nair and 17 students (IT and Business Faculty) visited the Dar Al Riffa Elderly Parents Day Care on 6 March 2012. The elderly women were taught some relaxation techniques by Ms Nair and the students exchanged pleasantries with them; put on love heart stickers, served food and drinks and gave away gifts. Chief of the Dar Al Riffa Parents Day Care, Ms Nadia Al Jar awarded RUW with a certificate of appreciation for their support to this center. This rendezvous promises an ongoing interaction for social wellbeing.

Partnership with INJAZ (Organized by CEC)

Royal University for Women started under the supervision of Dr. Rassem Amash in March 2012 a partnership with COCA COLA AND INJAZ to promote and support community service initiatives targeting the Bahraini youth. The first activity / initiative is Ripple of Happiness project, it is about the Social Responsibility of our institution and willingness to give back to the community. The project of our students is the following:

Project name :

Bab Al-Khair

What is Bab Al-Khair?

It is a website that act as a portal for donating for the people in need , also known as online charity

Mission :

To establish a network between the services and programs that are run by charities and organizations, and individuals who are seeking to help charities and organizations, or seeking for help from these charities and organizations.

Vision:

to set up an easier path to gain access to local charities and organization

Aims :

- Satisfy the needs of the people in need
- Motivate people to give back to their community

Partnership with Bahrain Red Crescent Society

On Thursday the 19th of April 2012, The RUW students and the operational team of Ripples of Happiness project along with Dr. Rasseem Amash visited "Bahrain Red Crescent Society " to promote their project, and looking into the involvement of students in community service and volunteer work.

Mr. Mubarak Al-Hadi showed great interest in working with RUW at different levels. Different projects were discussed, Ripples of Happiness was on the top of the agenda, and Mr. Mubarak did show great interest and enthusiasm to help and support the project, Mr. Mubarak reply was; all B.R.C.S doors are open, and full support will be provided to any project or activity to service the Bahraini society.

The collaboration will be as workshops, lectures, and more activities such as leadership development to involve students in community service and volunteer work, in addition to internship in human resource management. The reply was very positive and near future visits are planned to implement the ideas discussed to service the country and people of Bahrain.

Pictures of ROH

